Joseph Cerdan

Salesforce application architect and Marketing Cloud developer
Partner in Blue Inbox LLC, based in Los Angeles, CA

WHO I AM

I've been a developer for several years, and have been working in the Salesforce ecosystem since 2018. In the past 4 years, I've worked with and supervised development teams on more than 100 Salesforce projects. I'm currently a partner in Blue Inbox, a Los Angeles dev team focused on Salesforce dev and architecting.

I have a degree in Systems Engineering, and over the past several years I've completed 8 Salesforce certifications. Recently, I've focused on Health Cloud and Salesforce financial services integrations.

I'm available for part-time or full-time work, but payment must be corp-to-corp contract through my LLC, Blue Inbox.
